REMOTE CALL FORWARDING (RCF)

- 6 Remote call Forwarding is provided on the condition that the subscriber subscribe to sufficient RCF features and facilities to adequately handle calls to the RCF subscriber without interfering with or impairing any services offered by the Company. If, in the opinion of the Company, additional Remote Call Forwarding features at the call forwarding location or facilities at the terminating station are needed, the subscriber will be required to subscribe to such additional RCF features and facilities. In the event the subscriber refuses to subscribe to such additional RCF features and facilities such subscriber's RCF service shall be subject to termination.
7. The message charges applicable to remotely forwarded calls shall be comprised of two separate charges:
- a. A charge for that portion of the call from the originating station to the call forwarding location. This charge will be the charge specified in this Tariff or any other applicable Tariff for the type of call involved.
- A charge for that portion of the call from the call forwarding location to the terminating station. This charge will be the charge specified in this Tariff or any other applicable Tariff for the type of call involved.
- 8 One listing in the directory covering the exchange in which the call forwarding central office is located is provided without additional charge.
